

$3,000 Living to Serve Grants Now Available

The National FFA Organization is excited to announce that the 2017-18 Yearlong Living to Serve Grants application is now open and available in both English and Spanish! Middle and high school chapters may apply for up to $3,000 to support yearlong service-learning projects that address community needs in one of the following focus areas:

- Community Safety
- Hunger, Health and Nutrition
- Environmental Responsibility
- Community Engagement

To access the application, visit the Living to Serve Grants webpage. Applications are due Thursday, June 15, 2017.

This is the first in a series of funding opportunities to be released this year. Make sure you stay informed by visiting our Living to Serve webpage.

If you have any questions, contact the Living to Serve Team, LTS@FFA.org.
