LOCAL FFA MEMBER SELECTED FOR STATE CONVENTION TALENT

By: Emily Beanland, Media Intern

Beth Hallum of the Lone Grove FFA Chapter has been selected to perform at the 86th Annual State FFA Convention as part of the 2012 talent program.

Hallum is one of 62 talented FFA members selected to perform at the convention, May 1-2, at the Cox Convention Center in Oklahoma City. These gifted students will entertain an audience of more than 10,000 at numerous times throughout the two-day event on the convention stage and at the Career Show held in conjunction with the convention.

Arvest Bank Group is the corporate sponsor of the 2012 State FFA Convention talent program.

FFA is an integral part of the Agricultural Education Division in Oklahoma's CareerTech system. With more than 23,000 members, the Oklahoma FFA Association is the fifth-largest state FFA association. The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.
